

ProspectSoft Ltd

Software Project Consultant

About ProspectSoft

ProspectSoft is a rapidly growing, UK based, software company that focuses on providing market leading CRM software, eCommerce, Web Content Management and Email Marketing solutions aimed at the SME and small corporate user. By integrating these solutions with Sage, IRIS Exchequer, Pegasus and Access accounting systems and others, we provide our clients with the tools necessary to improve and refine each stage of their business cycle.

ProspectSoft is a major author and provider of these important solutions and we are growing faster than the market for such solutions.

The Job Role

Location: Stokenchurch, Buckinghamshire (J5/M40).

Salary: £23k-£30k

We need to add to our existing project implementation team by recruiting a Project Consultant with the ability to become a Project Manager shortly. The project team helps customers define and implement their new software and trains them before they go live.

Full product training will be given and you will be involved quickly in live project implementations.

Who Should Apply?

Skills:

We want to reinforce our Operations team by recruiting someone with a mix of business and technical database skills. We are seeking a graduate with a good degree in a computing or a technical business subject, preferably with a relevant post-graduate qualification or education. You will be thoroughly computer literate with experience of SQL databases, current web technologies, common software languages and Microsoft Desktop and Server Technologies. You will be an excellent communicator able to write technical documents clearly and train customers' inexperienced staff.

When you start on your own projects you will need to travel to customers across southern England so the ability to travel, a driving licence and a car will be necessary.

To Apply:

If you believe that you can contribute to our continuing success and enhance your own career, contact Stuart Miller, Operations Manager, on 01494 486337 or email him with your details at sdm@prospectsoft.com No agencies. The targeted closing date is 25 November 2011.
